

LANGUAGE LAB IN ACTION . . . By means of language laboratories, Torrance High Teacher Louis Bereskin can teach three or four different languages at once. Separate hook-ups allow him to pipe Spanish to first row, French to second row, German to the third row, and if need be a fourth row can listen to Latin. Students listen to foreign language recordings through earphones and repeat phrases after the recorded voice.

Film on Africa To be Shown Wednesday

Billy Graham's historic 17,000 mile "Safari for Souls" across Africa, is the theme of a new feature length motion picture, "Afriet on the Bridge," which has its Torrance premiere at South Bay Church of God, 17861 Yukon, Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 7:30 p.m. Photographed in authentic sound and natural color in seventeen principal cities across Africa from Monrovia, Liberia, to Cairo, Egypt, the document captures the spirit of Africa during these current crucial years. Frequently called "The Awakening Giant," Africa is depicted to be in a transition period — on a bridge — between ancient tribalism and the shining goal of independence from colonial rule.

GREETED . . . Staff Sgt. Warren R. Franks, newly assigned Air Force representative for the Torrance and South Bay areas, is greeted by the USAF area supervisors, M/Sgt. William B. Swatsell. Franks begins his tour of duty this week in the Torrance recruiting office, 1319 1/2 Sartori St. Franks is a veteran of 17 years in the service. More than 10 years were spent in the Army before he entered the Air Force.

Local Marine Reserve Unit At Mojave

Two hundred and twenty members of the Fifth Communication Company, area Marine Corps Reserve unit, departed last weekend for two weeks of field training at Twentynine Palms. The local leathernecks will take part in the largest Marine Corps Reserve maneuver ever conducted. The first week of training will constitute a rehearsal for mobilization, as reserve units from all over the nation are brought together and organized into an effective fighting force. The second week will be spent in tactical training under near combat conditions. The giant maneuver, "Operation Charger," is a joint air-ground exercise involving ground troops, supporting arms, and Marine aircraft. One of the major elements of the operation will be the "vertical envelopment" concept in which helicopter assault forces add a third dimension to tactical situations. The local reserve company, commanded by Major John W. Lazur of Rolling Hills, will return from the Mojave desert on Aug. 27th.

Mt. Baldy Trip Slated Tuesday

Teen-agers can still sign up for the Mt. Baldy trip which will take place on Tuesday, Aug. 23. The total cost of this ski trip is only $3 and includes transportation, skis and lift. There is a safe, exciting chair lift ride to 8,000 feet, skiing instruction (on straw) by a certified member of the Far West Ski Instructor's association, with free boots and skis provided. The bus will leave at 8 a.m. and return to 5 p.m. Anyone interested in this trip can gain additional information by calling the Recreation Dept. at FA 8-4108.

Harbor Savings Names Two Vice Presidents, Other Officers
